The Stroud Valleys DECORATIVE TRAIL

The Stroud valleys have always been home to a wealth of creativity, with many unique shops and services offering home inspiration. This is a key reason that Stephen Lewis, Managing Director of fabric and wallpaper company Lewis & Wood has come up with the idea for a 'Stroud Decorative Trail'. The new trail and its brochure are designed to highlight a selection of local companies (all based within a three mile triangle) for people who are interested in interiors of every shape and form.

Participating companies are highlighted on the following page. For further information about the Trail, visit strouddecorativetrail.co.uk
